Sir:

Applicants acknowledge receipt of the Notice of Allowance, including a Notice of Allowability and an "Examiner's Amendment," mailed September 23, 2010, in connection with the above-identified application. Applicants comment on the Examiner's Amendment as follows.

Applicants note that the Examiner's Amendment is not an amendment at all, but rather, simply a statement of the reasons for allowance. That is, see the Notice of Allowability, page 2, which states that "[t]he following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance."

More importantly, however, the examiner states that "[t]he claim 5 is allowable," but then goes on to quote from the language of claim 1. However, since (i) claim 5 was canceled in the Amendment filed June 14, 2010 (claim 1 was amended to incorporate the subject matter previously recited in claims 4 and 5), and (ii) the Notice of Allowability indicates that all of pending claims "1-3 and 6-24" are allowed, Applicants presume that the examiner intended to explain why claim 1 is allowable.

U.S. Appln. No.: 10/559,842
Atty. Docket No.: P70949US0

In view of the foregoing, Applicants submit that all of pending claims 1-3 and 6-24 are allowed.

Respectfully submitted,

JACOBSON HOLMAN PLLC
